

WORKSHOP AGENDA

11:00AM - 12:00PM
All Welcome
Keynote: Gateways to Education: Exploring Opportunities That May Be Right for You
Shelley Gerson

Educational opportunities are everywhere- you just need to know where to look. In this CoRe Conversation, we will explore a wide variety of programs that can help you achieve your educational goals. Whether you're considering a 4-year university, are a non-traditional student heading back to school, or are interested in pursuing a technical skill, this session is designed to help you find the path to learning what is right for you.

Where: Fieldstone Ballroom
12:00PM - 1:30PM
All Welcome
Working Lunch

Grab some lunch, and learn about industry and community partner scholarship opportunities available to the bleeding disorders community.

Where: Fieldstone Ballroom
1:30PM - 2:20PM
Breakouts for Patients and Families Only
Breakout: Families Track
Road to Managing Healthcare Independently
Suzi Greer B.S.N., R.N

Transitions can be difficult. This program helps families manage transitions; teach their children to understand bleeds, factor, and regimen; and foster greater healthcare independence as they grow.

Where: Lapham 2
Breakout: Young Adults Track
Insider's Guide to College Admissions
Christina Craig, College Counselor

Discover exactly what you need to know to find, apply to, and get accepted by colleges that fit you best. A former Marquette University admissions officer will take you inside the application process, giving you expert tips to help you best present yourself.

Where: Lapham 3
2:30PM - 3:30PM
Navigating the Financial Aid Process
Shelley Gerson

Ever wonder how to balance the books before you buy them? Tuition, books, supplies, computers and transportation can add up, but there are a myriad of options available. We'll discuss the process of accessing financial aid: when to start, where to go, what you'll need, the many choices available to you, and some considerations along the way.

Where: Lapham 2
Storytelling Tips and Advice
Christina Craig, College Counselor

Learn tactics for telling your unique story in the college application essays and on scholarship applications. Find out how to make your story resonate with admissions officers and scholarship committees.

Where: Lapham 3