

SUSAN SKINNER
MEMORIAL FUND
SCHOLARSHIP

Cultivating women's leadership within the bleeding disorders community

Do you want to deepen your involvement with the bleeding disorders community and meet women who are going through similar experiences to your own? Now is your chance!

The call for applications for the WFH Susan Skinner Memorial Fund Scholarship is currently open from July 1st to August 31st, 2023.

The WFH is looking for women from 18 to 60 years old who want to develop their leadership skills and boost their confidence. Scholarship recipients are given a unique opportunity to:

- Participate in skills development workshops alongside peers from 147 WFH national member organizations (NMOs)
- Learn about best practices in care
- Meet inspirational female community leaders from around the world
- Participate in the WFH 2024 World Congress in Madrid, the largest gathering of the global bleeding disorders community (includes complimentary registration, travel, and room and board)

Scan to learn more about the application process

“I feel more confident [after attending the WFH World Congress]. I have applied to be a member of the board of my NMO to use the skills and knowledge that I have learned...”

—Yannick Collé, 58, France, 2022 SSMF scholar